Our website address is <https://igsofamerica.com>

International Gaming Support of America, LLC (“IGSA”) is committed to respecting and protecting your privacy. We hope the following will help you to understand how we collect, use, and saves the personal information you provide on our website. However, our site is structured so that, in general, you can visit it without identifying yourself or revealing any personal information.

What personal data we collect and why we collect it

When you browse the IGSA web site, you do so anonymously. Your personal information – including your e-mail address – is not collected. Your IP address (the Internet address of your computer) and domains are logged to have an idea of which parts of our website you are visiting and how much time you are spending there. We do not link your IP address to anything personal to make you identifiable. The only other information automatically provided is the type of computer and operating system you are using. This information is supplied to us by your browser.

There are times when we may request that you voluntarily supply your personal information, including your name, e-mail address, and personal postal address, for purposes such as signing up to our newsletter, requesting a meeting, registering for an event, downloading materials provided by us, or participating in an online survey. Once you choose to provide personal information by which you can be identified, you can be assured that it will only be used to support your relationship with IGSA

On specific pages of the IGSA website, you can require specific services, make requests, download free materials and register to receive materials. The types of personal information collected at these pages are a name, email address, contact number, and address.

Embedded content from other websites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (e.g., videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracking your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

Who we share your data with

IGSA will not use or share your personal information without first asking for your permission. IGSA will not sell, rent or lease your registration data to others.

How long we retain your data

All users can see, edit, or delete their personal information at any time (except they cannot change their username). Website administrators can also see and edit that information.

What rights you have over your data

If you have an account on this site or have left comments, you can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.
